FOREWORD

"That ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend . . . what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height."

Ephesians 3:17,18.

Philosophers, Scientists, Theologians, Educators, Poets — all men, learned and simple — have sought for a complete understanding of the complex experience called living. They have chased it through the labyrinth of their own minds. They have called upon the myriad thoughts of their predecessors. They have looked into the tiniest of the earth's creation and away to the largest. They have tried to explain the abstract in terms of the concrete and the concrete in terms of the abstract. Yet they keep on searching. They are not content to rest.

The frontiers of earth have shrunk and those of space expanded. An aspect of the mind appears thoroughly searched; and yet we know we have not grasped its total essence. Why? Because we have not captured the whole and crammed it into one sentence — one phrase — one word? Because we have not seen the end nor found the beginning? Must all of life remain but a fruitless, unanswerable quest?

No. Life is a process of growth. It is the development and maturing of life through our everyday contact with personality, human and divine. This will have meaning to us individually when the Golden Rule becomes our standard. When we let the love that passes all understanding — God's love for man — control our life as a guide.

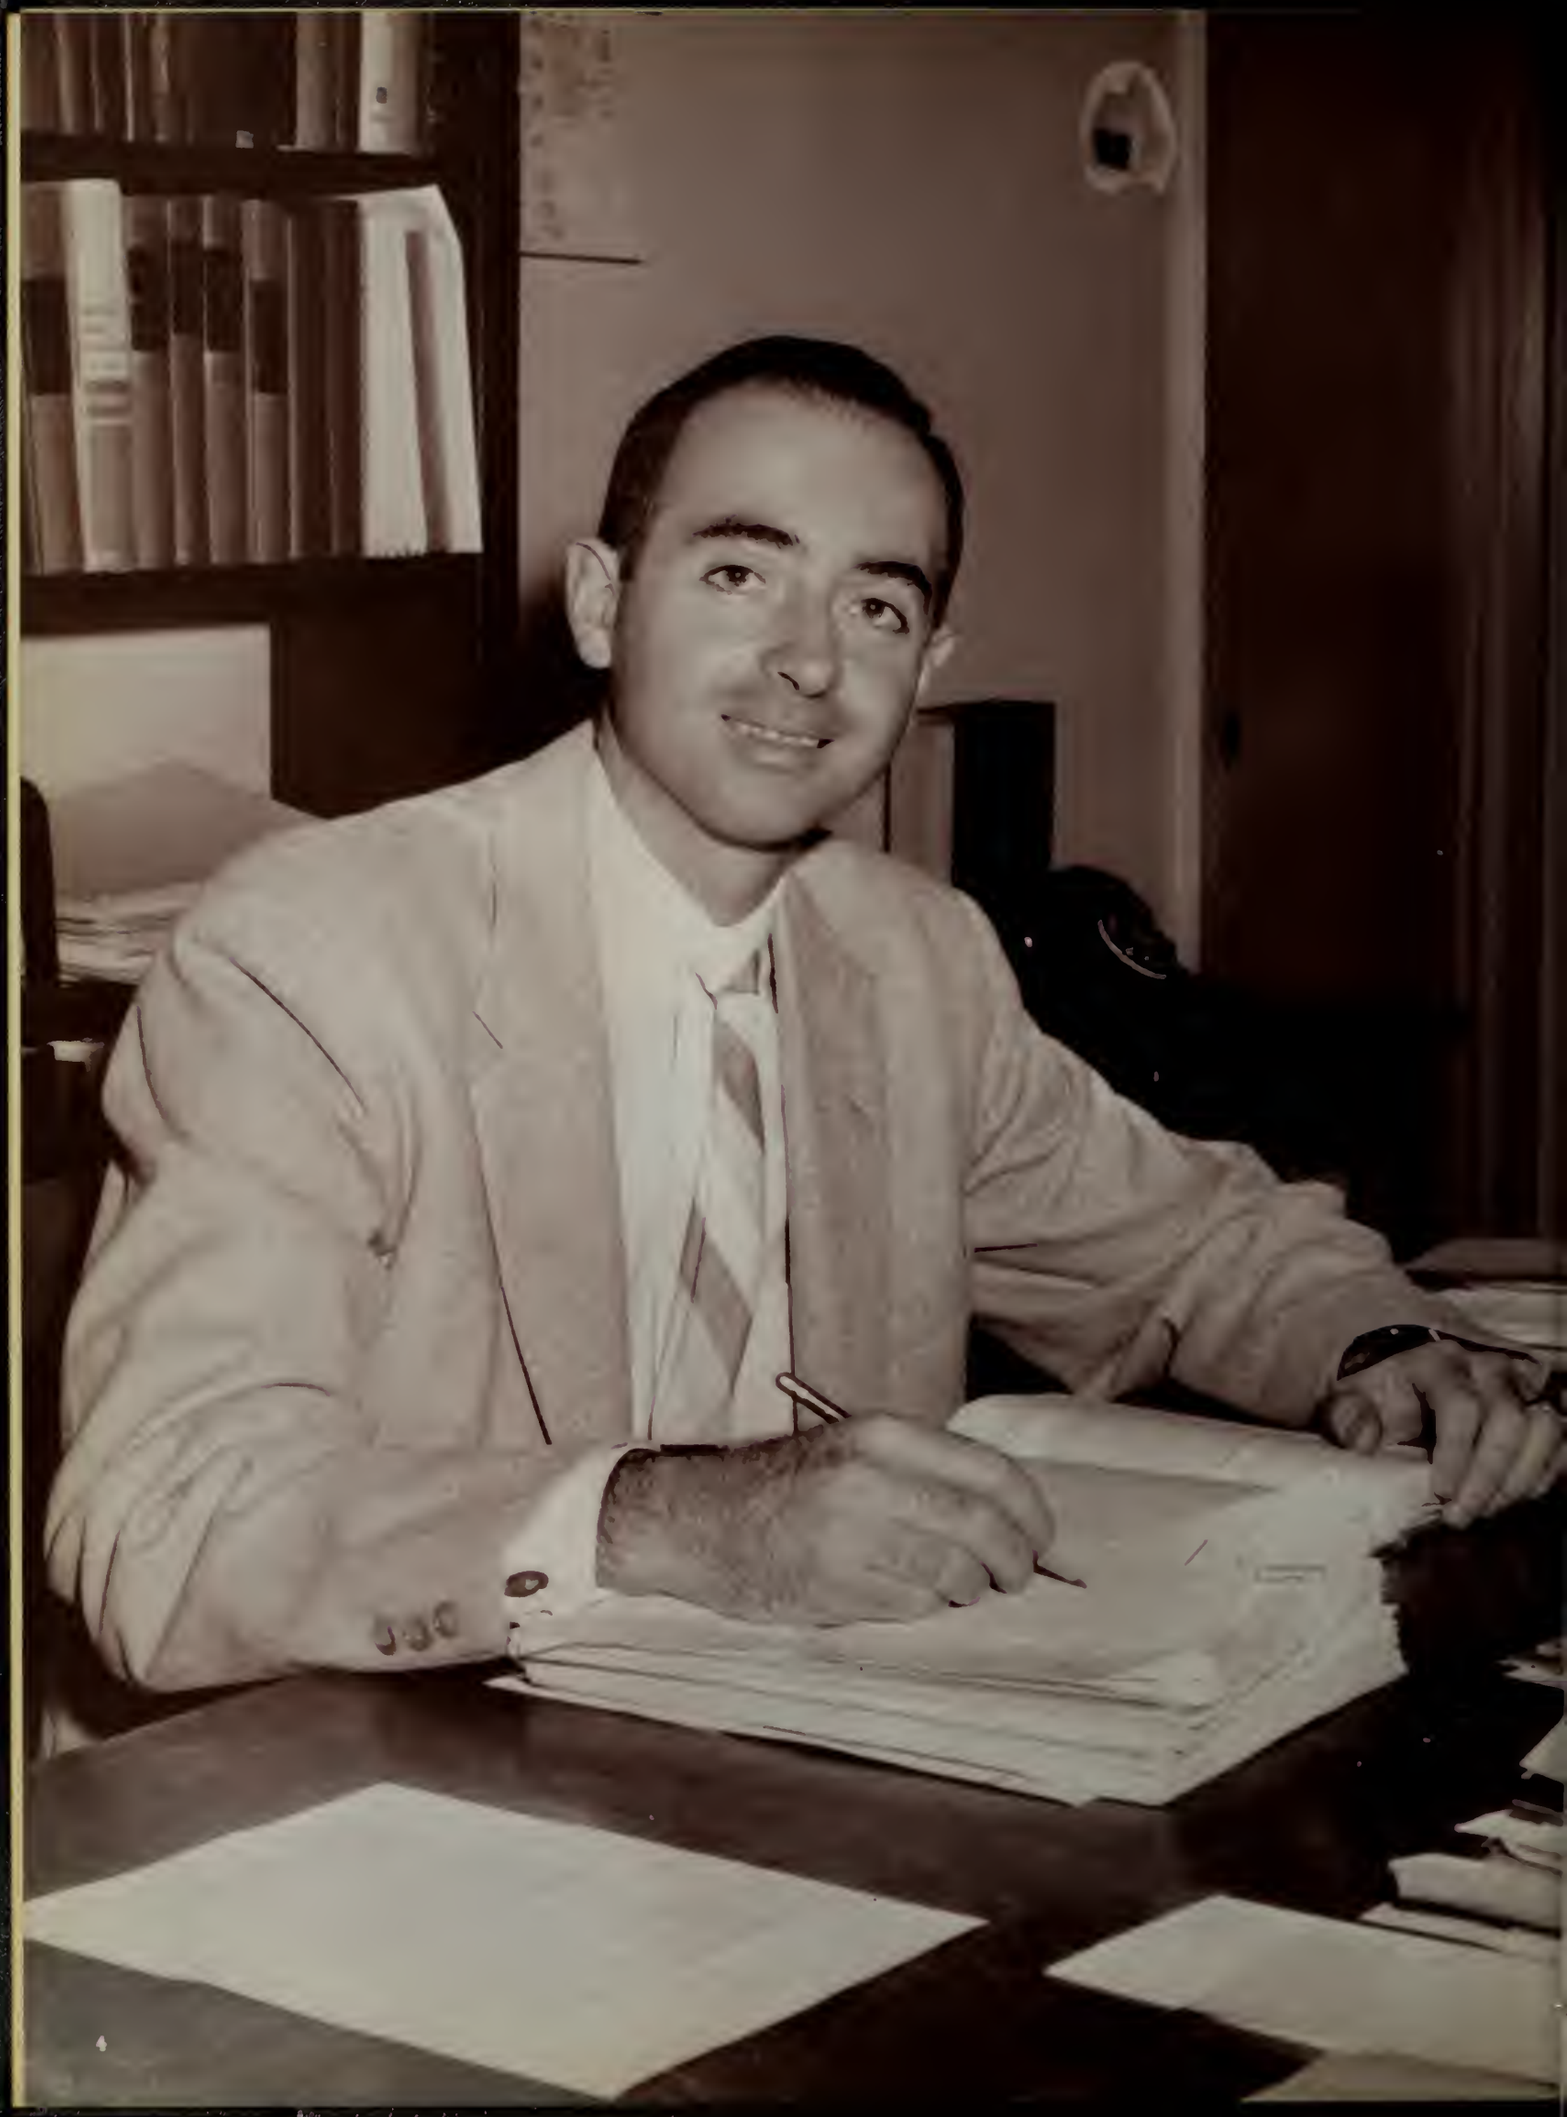
So we have chosen our theme. A fleeting opportunity to develop Scholastic Height, Athletic Length, Social Breadth, and Spiritual Depth at Eastern Nazarene College.

It would seem to us that this year has expanded our lives in an overwhelming measure, as fragments of the puzzle of purpose and life have fitted into a meaningful and satisfying picture.

THAT Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length and depth, and height;

Ephesians 3: 17-19



Dedication

Mrs. Gery with Daryl and Sondra Sue.

TO a gentleman who has held service and guidance to college youth above his personal desires.

TO one who has set a precedent for upholding a high standard of intellectual honesty in the study of his field.

TO one who is conscious that a consecrated Christian life is the paramount joy for full devotion to God.

TO a man whose strength, drive, humor, and gift of giving stands tall in the eyes of Administration, Faculty and Students alike.

We, the Staff, dedicate
the Nautilus for 1960
to you,

DR. FRANK WILLIAM GERY, JR.

OUR CAMPUS

Shrader Hall

WE WELCOMED THE FRESHMEN . . .

You have seen our Campus and now we would like to show you some of the events in which every Freshman participates during his first few weeks on our Campus.

Welcome to E.N.C.

Frosh girls are assigned rooms by our Head Counselor for Women, Mrs. Williamson.

All the comforts of home!

Now to the Bu$ine$$ Office.

Sue enjoys a frappe in the Dugout after a long day of registering.

First letter home.

Mr. Parsons helps Sue get ready for her first day of classes.

Toothache? No, just some lowly Freshmen being initiated by the Sophomores.

Dr. Mann welcomes the Freshmen during the Faculty Reception

"The pause that refreshes" at the Student Council Reception for the Freshmen.

The Student Council acquaints the Freshmen with their first Blue Book Exam.

"But Mrs. Williamson, do I really have to cut some off the bottom and put it on the top?"

Yogi Gerheart does a "Beat" version of the Gettysburg Address.

E.N.C.'s Boy Scout Troop.

THEN WE INTRODUCED FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION . . .

CLOCKWISE: J. Bell, K. Blachley, G. Douglas, C. Taylor, H. Ward, L. Spangenberg, E. Mann, J. Albright, R. Shoff, J. Andree, W. Benson, H. Heckert, L. Gordon, A. McKenzie, B. Powell, R. Goslaw, W. Lanpher, H. Smith, H. Parry, E. Grosse, B. Taylor, R. Woods, R. Smith, A. Sampson, D. Pringle, R. Ingland, C. Brown, R. Acheson.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of the College is composed of ministerial and lay members elected annually from each district on the Education Zone. This group meets each September at the College to hear the President's Report and to transact business for the College. Four members are elected from each of the following districts: Akron, Pittsburgh, Washington, Philadelphia, and New England. The Albany District sends three members. Two members are elected from each of the following districts: Canada Central, New York, and the Maritimes. Two representatives of the Alumni Association are also elected.

The success of the promotion work of E.N.C. is due in large part to the advice and assistance of the Development Council. Forty outstanding business and professional men of our Educational Zone together with the Board of Trustees compose the Development Council and meet each September to discuss and plan for the future of the College.

DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

Professors of Science and Religion are presented with the portrait of Dr. Shrader to signify the correlation of science and religion.

Shrader Hall

A standing ovation for Dr. Shrader at the official opening of Shrader Hall.

EDWARD S. MANN

THE PRESIDENT

Each college year brings new situations, new problems, new challenges. At a Christian college each year also brings new faith to face life's situations, new wisdom to solve life's problems . . . new courage to accept life's challenge. It is the confidence that Christian higher education has a decided "plus" which unites faculty members and students in a community of concerned seekers for truth. Four years of conscientious inquiry, reverent devotion to God, and careful personal living cannot fail to expand the measure of the mind and stretch the soul to new dimensions of Christian life and conduct.

It is our fond hope that each member of the Class of 1960 may have reached new heights and depths, and lengths and breadths, during four vital years at E.N.C.

Dr. and Mrs. Mann with their sons Robert, Merritt, Edward and Richard.

BERTHA MUNRO

DEAN EMERITUS

Dean Emeritus, Chairman of the Division of Letters, dedicated scholar, authoress and Christian witness . . . A pioneer — during the early growth decades of Eastern Nazarene College . . . An academic backbone — for higher standards in an educational world that tolerates slackness . . . An inspiration — for students struggling with literature . . . A witness for Christ and his love, and what it means to live for him. Above all, her life has echoed and re-echoed the dramatic testimony "Not somehow, but triumphantly."

DEAN

Dean of the college, professor and Christian administrator . . . challenging . . . thoroughness . . . As a professor of philosophy his complete lectures and unwavering logic stand out . . . As the instructor for freshman orientation, college and its way of life becomes less a grind and more a pleasure . . . A Nautilus adviser who always remedies problems of policy-layout-copy and art . . . The college's academic guide for scholastic standards and institutional standing . . . Exemplified Christian dedication.

OLD NORTH CHURCH SPIRE, BOSTON

Spiritual

"... THAT YE, BEING ROOTED AND GROUNDED IN LOVE, MAY BE ABLE TO COMPREHEND WITH ALL SAINTS WHAT IS THE BREADTH, AND LENGTH, AND DEPTH, AND HEIGHT";

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

To be forward looking in one's mind and upward looking in one's heart is not always easy. There are some who think these things are mutually exclusive. We have believed and have tried to act on the premise that they can not only complement each other, but must. Our times demand courageous thinking and lives aflame with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit. There is no area of our life and witness that can not be improved by honest reflection and analysis. There is nothing we do or are which does not constantly need God's power and grace to make it meaningful and sufficient.

The commitment of the heart comes first, however. If I am fully committed to God, then I can think clearly and come to a knowledge of the truth.

Treasurer, Frank Gery; Secretary, Kent Goodnow; and Music Director R. T. Williams go over some new ideas with pastor Rev. Martin.

Mr. Carroll Bradley, Superintendent of the Sunday School

Dr. James Cameron, N.F.M.S. President

Branson Roberts, President

EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION

The Evangelistic Association is a highly influential group at E.N.C. With its two-fold purpose as an outlet for students to evangelize and an opportunity for them to be active in Christian service in and around the local area. this association has become well known to college and community people alike.

Their activities center around hospital choir, and an evangelical program carried on in Boston missions.

The Student Foreign Missions Fellowship purposes to make the cause of missions more real; not only to those who are going to be our future missionaries, but also to those who are interested in missions as future laymen.

The Special programs for the year included the Fifth Annual Missionary Convention with missionary guests: Rev. Roy E. Copelin, Rev. Ronald Bishop, and Miss Jean Darling. In addition to other activities, the Fellowship sends Christmas greetings to missionaries and helps conduct the Alabaster box opening service.

The Student Ministerial Association has as its purpose "to supply fellowship, inspiration, practical knowledge, and preaching experience for all students who feel the call of God to preach the gospel."

This year the president, Robert Helfrich and the adviser, Rev. Stephen Nease worked together to provide practical pulpit experience by planning services throughout the New England District.

Members of the faculty were the main speakers during the year. Dr. Mullen, Rev. Nease, and Dr. Darling gave a series of lectures covering the subjects of the preacher as an administrator, a counselor, and a man of prayer. In addition to this series, several of the associations' own student ministers took charge of the groups' annual chapel sessions.

SENIOR SNEAK

Tune: "The Chipmunk Song"

Senior trip has come and gone
Pinkham Notch was lots of fun
Rustic lodge with fireplace warm
Made a cozy mountain dorm
Snow was falling on the trail
Down the slopes our skis did sail
Plentiful and scrumptious fare
Of sports we had our share.

We went skiing everywhere
Flying feet up in the air
Dean and Phyllis skiing pro's
Ooopsie! there poor Phylis goes
Jimmy Jones without his wife
Found that skiing was the life
Swain came flying from the top
But found he could not stop.

Dave and Ada were a pair
Their daring feats gave us a scare
Mr. Wells sure had the hitch
But always landed in the ditch
Mary Whipple ripped her britches
Hatch she kept us all in stitches
Only casualty was Ray
A rock was in the way.

Dick and Norma they did skate
Pat and Betty thought it great
Nancy practiced all the day
Skating backwards while we prayed
The big six reached the very top
Six more on snowshoes had to stop
Harmonica duets by Al and Bill
With song the room did fill.

Waitress, waitress, can't you see?
Ray wants lemon in his tea
Mrs. Wells woke with a shriek
Water bottle sprung a leak
Janie fell and bumped her noggen
Sliding down on a toboggan
Jean and Ginny had a spill
Hiking down the hill.

Willa and Marty on the slope
Ski instructors gave up hope
Joan and Branson were versatile
Skied and skated all the while
LaRue and Lillie — how they flew
Flying saucer great fun, too
We came squealing down the hill
Toboggans were a thrill —

Midnight on the mountain side
Turned our thought to God on High
Starlight splendor thrilled us all
Singing by the waterfall
Then to bed we made our way
Thanking God for our good day
Tired and happy as we went
Our day was so well spent.

Three Chinese cheers for all who planned
Our Senior Trip that was so grand
Frank, our driver, he was tops,
Waited for our many stops
E.N.C. we come again
And our studies we'll begin
One semester more have we
And we'll be history.

The lodge at Pinkham Notch Camp.

The Seniors arrive amid plenty of snow.

Some of us explored the hillsides on snowshoes.

Others, like Joan Ziegler, just sat around the fire and relaxed.

Mr. Paul Wells assisted by Nancy Borden and Mary Hatcher entertain the rest of the group with some old familiar songs.

Editor-in-Chief, Carolyn Finney, relaxes upon the completion of another deadline.

THE

"Through God we shall do valiantly . . ."

Relying on this promise, the 1960 Staff set out to give you a yearbook that would capture some of the highlights of the year and present them to you as a record of our college activities.

There were many times when the staff wondered if anything could evolve from the mass of pictures, proofs, copy sheets, and numerous coffee breaks. But we had determined not to entertain "mediocrity"; so we continued to channel our energy into worthwhile and creative activities.

The Business Staff, Alan Duckworth, Andrew Pancarik, and Carl Gold, display the smiles that won the advertisers.

NAUTILUS

Working toward each deadline we kept uppermost in our minds the goal of creating a Nautilus that would represent our activities, the goals of our college, and the ideals of our Church. It is our hope that not only have we done a job, but that "through God" we have done our task valiantly.

With pleasure we present to you the 1960 Nautilus which we hope will prove valuable in recalling many pleasant memories.

Literary Editors, Nancy Fee and Pat Lockwood, check copy for an approaching deadline.

SOCIETY

Sigma Delta Delta

The Deltas for the second straight year captured the society football crown. They fielded a team tough in spirit and clever in offense. Returning veterans provided a solid backbone and new freshmen added the final talent for a season record of four wins and two losses.

Sigma Delta Kappa

A costly tie held back the Kappas in their bid for the championship. After a slow start they climbed quickly to second place, but could not take first. Their final record was three wins, two losses and one tie.

Zeta end, Larry Casler, catches touchdown pass for score against Sigmas.

ROW ONE — C. Diehl, B. Wilhoyte, J. Jernegan, J. Moore, J. Barefoot ROW TWO — L. Gerhart, B. Clemens, D. Blades, B. Mann.

SIGMA DELTA SIGMA

ΣΔΣ

The Sigma squad for many years captured first or second place in the first division. This year they slipped to third place. They fought hard and tough, but finally settled for a season record of two wins, three losses and one tie.

The Green and Gold were victim of three one-touchdown losses. These losses put them in last place. However, they showed they were not the team to be beaten easily. At the close of the football race the Zetas posted a two win, four loss record.

This is where the 1960 Nautilus was published. The American Yearbook Plant at Hannibal, Missouri.

The thirty-eighth volume of the Nautilus could never have been produced without the wonderful cooperation of each member of the staff.

In addition we would like to thank Ed, Jack, and Bob of Miller Studios, Tom McHugh and Harold Gilbert of American Yearbook Company, Dr. Alvin H. Kauffman, our faculty adviser and to all the advertisers who made the 1960 Nautilus financially possible.
